

Stefano Ashbridge loves when a song gets stuck in his head. This passion for music has taken him on a journey for over more than two decades of drumming, teaching, recording, and touring internationally.

Feeling right at home playing various musical settings, he has a complimentary yet creative style to his drumming. He has studied drum set percussion with world class drummers such as Zoro (Lenny Kravitz, New Edition) and Mark Schulman (Pink, Foreigner). He has also studied music business, songwriting, and audio engineering.

Originally from Naples, Italy, he is now working professionally in Los Angeles. Some of the bands Stefano has worked with include Brad Wilson of Stone, Rakit, Alan Ritchson, and Grammy nominee Derek Jordan. He also took home the “Electronica Drummer of The Year” award at the L.A. Music Awards.

Stefano proudly uses Tama drums, Zildjian cymbals, Remo drumheads, Ahead drumsticks, Roland electronics, and Roc n' Soc thrones.

"Stefano showed up on time, every time, and he showed up PREPARED!! Learned the songs front-to-back... very impressive! I'd feel comfortable just having him show up to a gig without rehearsals! He's THAT good. Professional, fun, flexible and easy-going" - Danny Hamilton (dannyhamilton.com)

"I've worked with Stefano for the last year and at every event that we've played, his drumming has been impeccable! He is creative, offering suggestions, but listens to and performs exactly what's been decided on. His creativity is always looming, and his ability to improvise on a moments notice has been a God send! He's always been punctual to every rehearsal and show, and his attention to detail is over the top. He has shown me and my band that he is a man of integrity, responsibility and commitment, and here in Hollywood that is such a welcome to see"! - Jay'sen & the Purple Heart Band (myspace.com/thestonerejected)

"Stefano is great to work with. His attitude is always positive and upbeat. He comes prepared, always having listened to (and learned) any song you've sent him in advance. He's professional, punctual, flexible and attentive. And best of all, his drumming is solid, tasteful, and right in time. All things considered, Stefano is one of the best musicians I've happened upon in my entire career". - Tom Caufield (caufieldmusic.com)

"Stefano is dependable, reliable, and extremely talented in creating drum landscapes and energy from music. His dynamics and musicianship stand out above the rest! I highly recommend Stefano as a drummer and friend." - Phillip Kim (NSoul.com)
